Bible Story

Manna
(Exodus 16)

Remember This

"I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart."
Psalm 111:1, ESV

Say This

Who can you thank for everything?
I can thank God
for everything.

Activity

Fun Food

What You Need

Small squares of paper and a towel

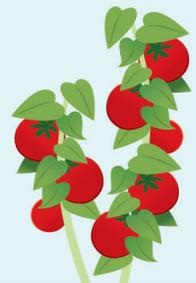

What You Do

Lay the towel flat on the floor. Place the small pieces of paper on top of the towel to represent manna.

Ask your child to stand on one side of the towel while you stand on the other side. Together, lift the towel. Invite your child to shake their arms so the towel moves very fast. Encourage them to try to bounce the manna. Replace the "food" and repeat several times.

Say, "God gave food to the people in our Bible story. He put the manna for them on the ground. Let's pretend the paper on our towel is like the manna in our story. Let's shake our towel and bounce our food high so we can thank God for our food.

"Awesome job! We can thank God for EVERYTHING! Who can you thank for everything? I can thank God for everything!"

Prayer

"Dear God, You are a big, awesome, wonderful God. Thank You for giving the Israelites the food they needed each day in the desert. Thank You for giving us what we need, too. Thank You for always loving us. In Jesus' name we pray, amen."

Memory Verse

"Then he said to them, 'Watch out! Be on your guard against wanting to have more and more things. Life is not made up of how much a person has.'" Luke 12:15, NIV

Bible Story

Israelites Long for Egypt
Exodus 16:2-21;
17:1-7

Bottom Line

Don't miss out on what you have now.

Use this guide to help your family learn how God can help us be content.

Activity

Rear View

What You Need:

Hand mirror, painter's or masking tape, timer

What You Do:

Create a path using the tape. (If you don't have tape, you can create a pathway using rolled-up towels or blankets.) Make sure your path has some winding curves! The trickier it is to follow, the better.

Say, "We're going to play a game. You'll walk backward down the path, using this mirror to see where you're going. The only rule is that you cannot turn around and look forward. You can only use the mirror to look behind you! Let's see how long it takes you to finish."

Time how long it takes your child to make it down the path using the hand mirror. If time allows, take a turn yourself!

Say, "It's tough to move forward while you're looking behind you, right? This game shows how hard it is to live in the past! The Israelites learned that in our Bible story today. Let's talk about that a little more."

Talk About the Bible Story

Why were the Israelites upset? (They said life in slavery in Egypt was better than waiting in the desert for the Promised Land.)

How were the Israelites acting? (They were miserable. They couldn't enjoy all that God had done by freeing them. They whined and complained.)

Why is it important to remember what's good in your life RIGHT NOW?

What's the most exciting thing coming up in the next few months? How can you still look forward to those things, but enjoy where you are right now?

Parent: Share about a time when you were either too focused on the past or longing for the future. What did you miss out on as a result?

Prayer

Use this prayer as a guide, either after talking about the Bible story or sometime before bed tonight:

"Dear God, we appreciate all that You have given us, and we know that You'll be with us in the future too. Help us celebrate and be thankful for what You're doing in our lives right now. We love You, and we ask these things in Jesus' name. Amen."

Key Question

What is good in your life right now?

Activity

Rather Gather

What You Need:

Painter's or masking tape

What You Do:

On the floor, create two circles using the tape. The circles should be close together, and large enough that your child can stand inside them. (If you don't have tape, you could create circles using small pillows or rolled-up towels and blankets.)

Say, "We're going to play a game. I'll give you two options for what you'd rather eat. The first option will be circle one (indicate), and the second option will be circle two (indicate). You'll answer by hopping in circle one or circle two. Once you answer, you'll hop out of the circle onto neutral ground to get ready for the next question. Ready?"

Which would you rather eat?

Circle one for pizza, or circle two for burgers
French fries or potato chips?
fried chicken or fried shrimp?
Skittles or chocolate?
grass or dirt?
peanut butter or Nutella®?
an earthworm or a bug?
pickles or pickled eggs?
frog legs or chicken feet?
apples or oranges?

If time allows, let your child read off the list and you show your choices!

Say, "That game was fun, right? But what if we lived our lives that way—always wishing we had something else? That would be miserable, right?"

Talk About the Bible Story

Why were the Israelites upset? (They said life in slavery in Egypt was better than waiting in the desert for the Promised Land.)

What does that tell you about the Israelites? (They were discontent. They didn't trust God, even though God had been faithful to them over and over again.)

What are some ways God provides for us?

What do you think you might miss out on in the future if you're not content and thankful for what's happening in your life right now?

Parent: Share about a time when you were either too focused on the past or longing for the future. What did you miss out on as a result?
